

ISAT NEWS

- The Daily Herald did a story on whether or not the teacher salary was an indicator of how well schools did on the ISAT test. They found no correlation. Interestingly enough, Millburn was listed as the 7th lowest paid in the area, yet had some of the highest test scores and continued to make AYP each year. Millburn taxpayers are getting a good value for their taxes.
- The Sun-Times did a ranking of the top 100 middle schools and Millburn Central ranked 99 out of 1386. Millburn West ranked 78 out of the 1386 total. As for the elementary schools, Millburn Central ranked 288 and Millburn West ranked 164 of the 2205 total elementary schools. This is a phenomenal state ranking.
- The News-Sun ranks Millburn School District #24 in the top 10 according to a composite of our overall ISAT scores. We are among good company in our rankings.
